FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Chambersburg, PA-- May 5-- The Chambersburg Cardinals is pleased to announce the arrival of Raegan Clever to the Cardinals Organization as Dance Coordinator for the Lady Cardinals. Ms. Clever, a resident of Chambersburg, brings a lifetime of knowledge to the Lady Cardinals Dance Team. Currently employed as an 8th grade Reading Teacher at Faust Junior High, Ms. Clever has been actively involved as a member of Clarissa's School of the Performing Arts for the past eight years and has a background in cheerleading and gymnastics. After graduating from Shippensburg University with a Bachelor of Arts in English, Ms. Clever joins an already talented team of Lady Cardinal's members for the 2011 season. "We are very pleased to have Raegan as our dance coordinator," states Russell Ruckman, Director of Business Operations. "Not only is she very knowledgeable and experienced in her field, but she brings a tremendous amount of positive energy and professionalism to the organization."

The Chambersburg Cardinals would like to announce the acquisition of Kelly Kline as the new Fundraising Coordinator. Mrs. Kline brings years of experience in coordinating for organizations to the table. When not spending time with her husband, Alan Kline, or any of their six children, Mrs. Kline works as a Pharmacy Technician and Buyer/Inventory Coordinator for the Waynesboro Hospital. Mrs. Kline has roots in the Chambersburg Cardinals as her Father-in-Law played for the Cardinals in the early 1950's and she herself was a Lady Cardinal during the 2010 season. In her downtime, Mrs. Kline enjoys working out, spending time with family, community and charity functions and driving around in her beloved Mustang Convertible. Mr. Ruckman states, "Having Kelly on board on the business side of our operations is definitely a plus. We are excited to see where she will take the fundraising department as its head."
